

The Association of Cricket Statisticians and Historians

ACS MEMBERSHIP BULLETIN

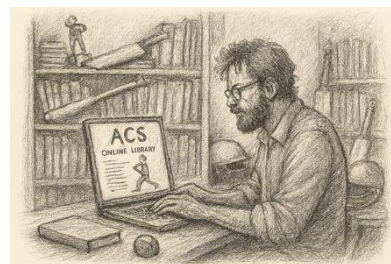

No. 55 – 5 December 2025

Call for Volunteers

Can you spare AN HOUR or TWO ?

The ACS Online Library is a growing collection of historical records, documents, biographies, and archive material including:

- Full digital archive of "Cricket: A Weekly Record of the Game (1882–1914)"
- Digitized ACS quarterly journals from 1973 to 2022
- ACS Cricketers Series with biographical and statistical data
- 6,890 archived research pages by Peter Wynne-Thomas
- Tony Webb Minor Counties Collection included
- + + +

Learn more - starting here: <https://acscricket.substack.com/p/our-online-library>

Our LIBRARY-SEARCH tool enables you to find complementary materials quickly within the collection, searching by year, team, or name -- even without prior source knowledge.

We need volunteers to support our work NOW....

What else can you do during these dark winter evenings or wet Saturdays

There's no live cricket to play, watch, umpire or score

..... SO

WILL YOU help us to expand the scope of our LIBRARY-SEARCH tool by collecting & inputting key "index" data into our pre-designed spreadsheet template?

"Seems a great way to learn about the content" Yes!
- What's your Interest

"But I'm not sure how to start"
No Worry we'll show youIt's Easy !!

Please get involved, Contact us:

indexhelp@acscricket.com